

WEATHER FRONTS

TYPES OF CLOUDS

Did you know...

Researchers at the National Centre for Atmospheric Science study how clouds form in the various layers of the atmosphere; what they're made from, how is climate change affecting cloud formation and rainfall? Understanding our impact on the atmosphere is vital to mitigating damages we've caused