

Did you know.....

That RAL Space design, build and study the data from satellites orbiting the Earth? They use this data to study weather patterns, the effects of global warming on sea surface temperatures, land surface temperatures, deforestation, natural disasters and more.