

Did you know.....

That RAL Space have been involved in over 200 space missions? These range from working on ground based telescopes and Earth observation satellites to studying the observable universe from space. STFC supported the design, manufacture and testing of the MIRI (Mid InfraRed Instrument), one of the four camera instruments on board the James Webb Space Telescope.